

Dallas, TX (June 14, 2007) Transition Capital Investment Partners, a Dallas based private equity fund, announced the acquisition of Coordinated Home Healthcare of Las Cruces, New Mexico. Founded by Lila Roberts, Coordinated Home Healthcare is a twenty five-year-old company that provides home caregiver services out of eleven branch offices in Southern New Mexico.

“The ownership of Coordinated has built one of the finest home healthcare provider models in the Southwest. We intend to carry on with that level of quality and expand the business across the state”, said Dan Patterson, one of the three founders of Transition Capital Investment Partners.

Kevyn DeMartino and Rick Baldwin structured the acquisition for TCIP. They will continue to oversee the expansion of the business and the expansion into skilled Medicare services.

Senior debt funding was provided by HealthCare Finance Group with mezzanine financing provided by Brown Brothers Harriman.

Coordinated Home Healthcare is Transition’s ninth investment in healthcare related services. For further information about Coordinated Home Healthcare, please visit the Transition Capital Partners website.

About Transition Capital Partners

Founded in 1993, Transition Capital Partners is a private equity firm focused on leveraged recapitalizations and management buyouts of middle market businesses. With the ability to bring capital and management resources to each investment, TCIP provides an entrepreneur the opportunity to gain liquidity while maintaining an upside stake in the business, and if desired, a reduced management role.
