

Transition Capital Partners portfolio company acquires Pasos Home Healthcare of New Mexico

December 18, 2007 - Dallas, TX

Transition Capital Partners (“TCP”), a Dallas based private equity fund, announced the December 18th, 2007 acquisition of certain assets of Pasos Home Health of New Mexico, Inc. (“Pasos”)

Pasos is based in Las Cruces, New Mexico and is an add-on acquisition to the TCP portfolio company of Coordinated Home Healthcare. Coordinated Home Healthcare (“Coordinated”) is a twenty five-year-old company that provides skilled and unskilled home caregiver services out of eleven branch offices in Southern New Mexico. The Pasos acquisition provides Coordinated with a large base of Las Cruces Medicare patients and allows the company to significantly expand its Medicare operations in Southern New Mexico.

TCP continues to be interested in similar Medicare or Medicaid related acquisitions in New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona and West Texas and welcomes inquires from intermediaries and/or potential sellers.

Kebyn DeMartino structured the acquisition for TCP and will continue to oversee the expansion of Coordinated into skilled Medicare services. Pasos Home Health Care is TCP’s eleventh investment in healthcare related services. For further information about Coordinated Home Healthcare, please visit the Transition Capital Partners website.

About Transition Capital Partners

Founded in 1993, Transition Capital Partners is a Dallas based private equity firm investing in leveraged recapitalization and management buy-outs of well managed, entrepreneurial, lower middle market service oriented businesses. TCP is particularly successful in investing in high growth companies where additional management and strategic resources may be desired by the existing ownership group. We typically provide the entrepreneur with the opportunity to gain liquidity, while maintaining an equity stake in the business for future upside, and if desired, a reduced management role.
